Introduction

The Annapurna region is famed for its cultural and scenic diversity and splendid mountain views. The foothills provide tremendous trekking and there are many trails connecting villages and ridge tops, winding through intricate terracing and past ochre thatched houses. It is still possible to get away from the main trails to quiet regions that are little trekked and relatively unspoilt.

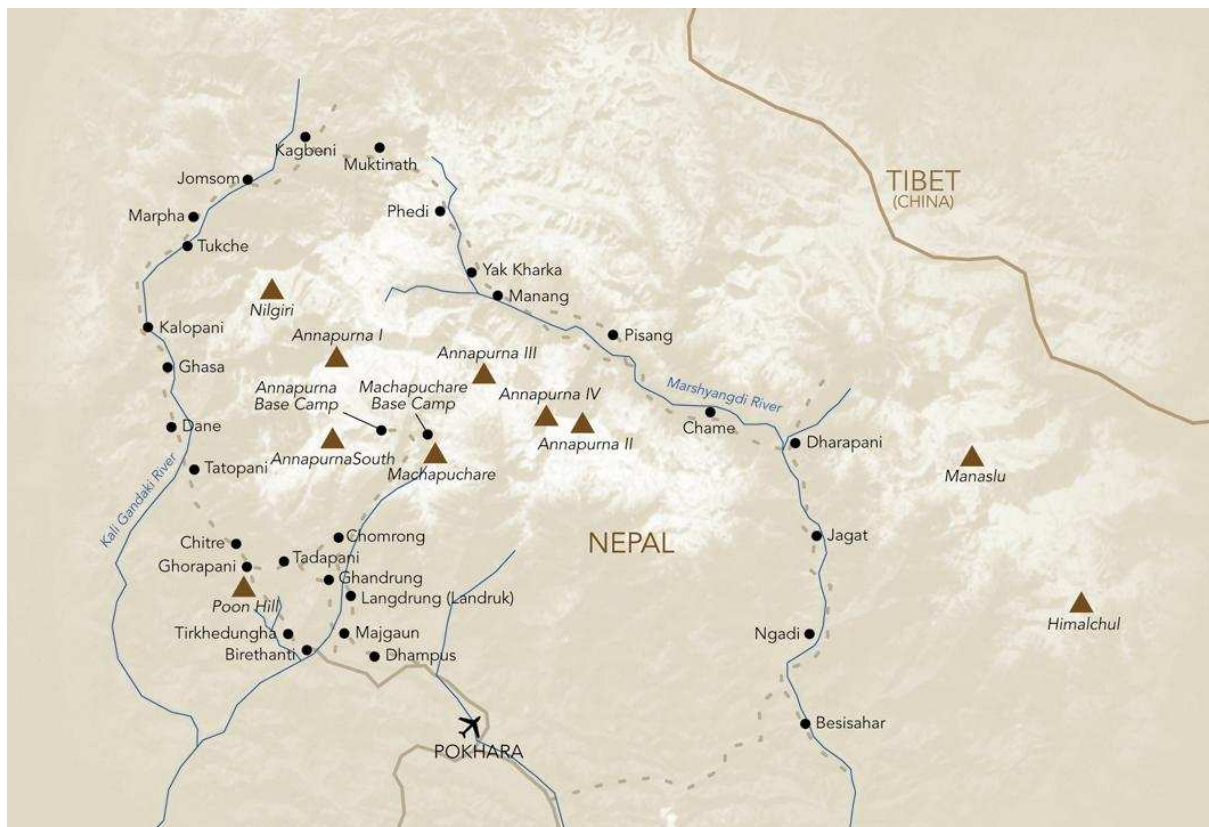

Nestled among the mighty Himalayan Peaks are secluded valleys, known locally as sanctuaries of the gods. One is the Annapurna Sanctuary, a natural alpine amphitheatre completely surrounded by snow capped mountains, all over 6100 metres. On this trek we will overnight deep in the heart of the Sanctuary, as close as we can get to the Himalayan summits. We will have two full days to explore this stunning mountain scenery and to witness magical sunrises and sunsets, when the mountains, glaciers and snows glow pink and gold.

The Annapurna region is one of startling contrasts and inhabited by an amazing array of varied ethnic peoples. It contains the deepest valley in the world – Kali Gandaki, which lies between the summits of Annapurna 1 and Dhaulagiri 1 as well as a section of the Tibetan plateau near Muktinath where the arid, velvety brown landscape contrasts vividly with the glistening white of the snow capped peaks. In a relatively small area the Annapurna region offers some of the best trekking anywhere in the world.

Our 12-day trek begins at Pokhara with a short drive to the road head and then a walk to our first overnight at Tirkhedunga. Over the next few days we will walk through idyllic villages and along ridges where spectacular panoramic views unfold to reveal a magnificent mountainscape. We initially head west to Ghorapani and an ascent of Poon Hill (3192m) for impressive views of the mountains at sunrise. Walking through oak and rhododendron forests we enter the Modi Khola Valley, our route into the Sanctuary.

Entrance to the Sanctuary, known as the 'gate' is guarded by the twin peaks of Machapuchare and Hiunchuli. Now we are surrounded by an array of ice-bound peaks with the enormous south face of Annapurna 1 dominating the basin. We have allowed two nights here, in the heart of Sanctuary, surrounded by the grandeur of glaciers and mountains. It is an easy walk to Annapurna Base Camp and there is time to enjoy the surrounding natural beauty.

We retrace our steps down the Modi Khola Valley before taking a different route back to Pokhara. From Chomrong we walk through the Gurung villages of Lhandrung and Pothana before a short drive to our treks end on the shores of Phewa Lake in Pokhara. There is time to relax and enjoy stunning views of the now distant Annapurnas before returning to Kathmandu.

Itinerary

Day 1 – Depart UK

Depart UK on flight to Kathmandu.

Day 2 - Kathmandu (1527 metres)

Arrive Kathmandu. Flying into Kathmandu along the northern border of Nepal on a clear day is in itself an unforgettable experience, with the entire Nepalese Himalaya sprawling out below you. After customs, you will pass out of the restricted area and into the passenger pick-up area outside the building. You will see a Classic Journeys signboard and your trek leader will be waiting to welcome you to Nepal. After transferring to your Hotel, you will be given a chance to catch your breath and then be given a briefing. Your air ticket will be collected to reconfirm your onward travel. Overnight hotel.

Day 3 – Kathmandu Sightseeing

A day in Kathmandu. Morning guided sightseeing to the Buddhist and Hindu sights in Kathmandu, probably to Kathmandu's Durbar Square, Swayambunath - the Buddhist monkey temple and Pashupatinath – a sacred Hindu temple complex on the banks of the Bagmati River. Three major towns are located in the valley, Kathmandu, Patan and Bhaktapur, each having a great artistic and architectural tradition. Kathmandu is the capital and the largest city in the country. Patan, the second largest is separated from Kathmandu by a river. Bhaktapur, the third largest, is towards the eastern end of the valley and its relative isolation is reflected in its slower pace and more distinctly mediaeval atmosphere. In the Valley the landscape is dramatically sculpted by the contours of the paddy fields. The towns and villages are alive with the colours of farm produce, ranging from pyramids of golden grain to the vivid reds of chilli peppers laid out on mats to dry in the sun. In the streets and towns there is a constant bustle of activity, especially in the bazaars and markets where the farmers sell their vegetables and fruit. The afternoon is free for you to explore the city further and pack bags ready for the start of the trek the following morning. You can leave a bag at the hotel with items you will not need on the trek. Overnight Hotel. (B)

Day 4 - Fly to Pokhara (885 metres), Trek to Tirkhedunga (1525 metres)

Fly to Pokhara (35 mins), where our trekking crew will be waiting for us. After sorting out our gear we load the bus and drive to Nayapul, which takes around 2 hours. The views from the ridge at Naudanda of the entire Annapurna range are spectacular and to the south is Phewa Tal. From Nayapul we walk for about 1 hour to our lunch spot, next to the Bhurungdi Khola, which is excellent for bathing. After lunch we follow the Bhurungdi Khola, through bamboo and rhododendron forests to Tirkhedunga, a village perched on the side of a canyon high above the river. (3 to 4 hours walking). Overnight lodge. (BLD)

Day 5 – Ghorapani (2833 metres)

Continuing through rhododendron forests to cross the Bhurungdi Khola on a suspension bridge we begin the steep ascent towards Ghorapani. A series of stone steps brings us to the attractive slate roofed village of Ulleri, a large Magar village. As we gain height the views of Annapurna South and Hiunchuli are becoming more impressive. From Ulleri the trail is less steep and it is a gentle climb through rhododendron forests to Banthanti. This marks the beginning of the oak and rhododendron forest that straddles the ridge. Continuing the ascent, we arrive at Ghorapani which means, "horse-water" and it is a welcome watering spot not only for teams of ponies but also for weary trekkers. From the pass we have a spectacular panorama of mountain peaks, stretching from Dhaulagiri in the west to Manaslu in the east. (6 to 7 hours walking). Overnight lodge. (BLD)

Day 6 - Tadapani (2530 metres)

For impressive views of the mountains at sunrise we walk to the top of Poon Hill (3192m) before breakfast. Dhaulagiri, the Kali Gandaki valley, Nilgiri, Annapurna 1, Annapurna South, Hiunchuli and Machapuchare can all be seen. After breakfast we begin our descent to the Modi Khola, though it's not all down hill. From Bahune Pati it is a steep climb to the pass at Tadapani where Annapurna South and Hiunchuli tower impressively above. (5 to 6 hours walking). Overnight lodge. (BLD)

Day 07 - Chomrong (2050 metres)

The trail drops steeply from Tadapani, through forests at first where colourful tree orchids can be found, then through cultivated fields to cross the Kymnu Khola. After lunch we begin the ascent of the Modi Khola valley climbing through forests and pastures to Chomrong, the last village and the start of the Annapurna National Park. Throughout the day we have tremendous views of Annapurna South, Hiunchuli and Machapuchare, snow-capped peaks rising from green-forested hills. (5 to 6 hours walking). Overnight lodge. (BLD)

Day 8 - Dovan (2534 metres)

Continuing through forests of rhododendron, oak and hemlock we climb high above the Modi Khola to Khuldi Ghar (2540 metres), a single stone hut once used by the British sheep breeding project. We stop for lunch at Bamboo, 3 ½ hours from Chomrong. We now climb through bamboo forests, crossing streams and passing the occasional bamboo shack used by shepherds. We overnight at Dovan, a clearing in the bamboo forest about 3 hours beyond Bamboo. (6 to 7 hours walking). Overnight lodge. (BLD)

Day 9 - Machapuchare Base Camp (3700 metres)

We continue through bamboo forest to Hinko cave (3170m), not really a cave but a large overhanging rock which was used to provide shelter for members of Bonington's Annapurna South Face team on the approach march to the Annapurna Sanctuary in 1970. Now the valley narrows into a steep gorge until we pass through the "gates" of the Sanctuary, formed by Hiunchuli on the left and Machapuchare on the right. Once through the gates, the valley widens and we overnight in the meadows of the Sanctuary near Machapuchare Base Camp with Annapurna South, Hiunchuli and Machapuchare towering above. (6 hours walking). Overnight lodge. (BLD)

Days 10 & 11 - Machapuchare Base Camp (3700m) & Annapurna Base Camp (4130m).

Two days to explore the Sanctuary. We will stay our first night at Machapuchare Base Camp (3700m) and then take the short 1-2 hours walk the following day to stay at Annapurna Base Camp (4130m); this is the highest point of our trek. At Annapurna Base Camp the enormous south face of Annapurna towers above to the northwest and we are surrounded on all sides by snow capped peaks, fluted walls of ice and enormous rock buttresses. The panorama is magnificent including Hiunchuli (6451m) then turning clockwise Annapurna South (7230m), Fang (7646m), Annapurna I (8105m), Tent Peak (5673m), Gangapurna (7467m), Annapurna III (7568 m) and Machapuchare (7005m). Our days in the Sanctuary will allow time to explore the different view points and to witness the amazing sunrise and sunsets, when the mountains glow pink and gold. Overnight in lodges. (BLD)

Day 12 - Dovan (2534 metres)

We retrace our steps, out of the Sanctuary and down the Modi Khola Valley to Dovan. (5 to 6 hours walking). Overnight lodge. (BLD)

Day 13 - Chomrong (2050 metres)

Still retracing our steps down the Modi Khola valley, through bamboo and rhododendron forests to Chomrong, the first village encountered on the way out from the Sanctuary. (5 hours walking). Overnight lodge. (BLD)

Day 14 - Lhandrung (1565 metres)

After climbing steeply out of Chomrong on a series of stone steps we follow the trail, descending to Jhinu Danda. This is a good place to stop for lunch, as 20 minutes walk from here are welcome hot springs. From lunch the trail descends through terraced fields to the Modi Khola River before climbing steeply to Lhandrung. Directly opposite on the far side of the valley is Ghandrung, the second largest Gurung village in Nepal. The views of Annapurna South and Machapuchare are outstanding. (5 to 6 hours walking). Overnight lodge. (BLD)

Day 15 - Pokhara (885 metres)

Soon after Lhandrung there is a steep climb through rhododendron forest to a ridge crest at Bhichok, the view from here is splendid. The trail follows the ridge through forest and green pastures; we stop for lunch just before Pothana, about 4 hours from Lhandrung. After lunch it is a short walk (1 ½ hours) to Dhampus a long, spread out village with a magnificent view of the now distant mountains, Annapurna South, Hiunchuli, Machapuchare, Annapurna 1V, Annapurna 11 and Lamjung. From Dhampus the trail follows the ridge then descends to the road where transport will be waiting. We load the bus and drive alongside paddy fields and forest and through villages to Phewa Tal. We reach Pokhara and transfer to our hotel. This evening we may catch a glimpse of the sun setting on Annapurna and Machapuchare. (5 to 6 hours walking). Overnight hotel. (B)

Day 16 – Kathmandu (1526 metres)

Late morning we will fly from Pokhara to Kathmandu (35 minutes). Transfer to hotel and rest of day free for sightseeing and shopping. Overnight hotel. (B)

Day 17 – Depart Kathmandu

Transfer to the airport for your departure flight. (B)

For the trek, an English speaking guide (Sirdar) will accompany you along with the required number of porters. Depending on the group size there may also be one or more assistant guides. Your leader will be with you throughout the trek to guide you along the route, help organise and interpret in the villages and assist the group in any other way possible. Our leaders are fluent in English and Nepalese as well as often another language, and have walked in the area many times. They will try and give you a real insight into the local way of life and, for those interested, will happily give some basic Nepalese lessons while walking or over evening drinks. Although not specialists, they are interested in the area's mountains, flora and fauna. Please ask your guide/leader if you have any queries during your holiday e.g. rest breaks, type and quantity of food or any other specific requests, as they will do their best to adjust the trip accordingly and cater for your needs and tastes.

TREK GRADE

Please remember that occasionally bad weather, altitude and unfamiliar cultures can make extra demands. A sense of humour and determination are important attributes on any adventure holiday and on a trekking holiday it is important to enjoy walking. In order to help you in selecting a trek we have given each trek a grade, although this is only a simple guide. Please read the appropriate trip dossier and if you need help in deciding which trek is suitable, please call the office and we will be pleased to advise you further.

Easy treks involve up to 6 hours of walking a day, on good trails with plenty of time for sightseeing. Altitudes generally do not exceed 3500 metres. Anyone who enjoys regular exercise and is in good physical condition should easily cope with these treks.

Moderate treks involve walking for 6 to 8 hours a day in more remote country, reaching altitudes of approximately 4500 metres. A reasonable level of fitness is required as there will be much ascent and descent with the occasional difficult day. A hill walking background is advisable.

Demanding treks are harder, suitable for regular hill walkers as they are generally more demanding and may involve 7 or 8 hour days, with altitudes up to 5500 metres. You should be physically fit and appropriate preparation is essential. Some days may involve crossing a pass with up to 10 hours walking.

A TYPICAL DAY

The day normally starts with an early morning mug of tea (or coffee), enjoyed while still in our sleeping bags at around 6.00 am. We will have breakfast in the lodge dining room, please pack before breakfast, as the porters will normally set off while we eat. We start walking after breakfast, between 7.30 and 8.30 am. Everyone is free to walk at the pace, which is comfortable for them, stopping along the way to explore villages and take photographs. We will stop around 11.00 am at a local teahouse or lodge for lunch. Our overnight lodge is usually reached at around 3 to 4 pm. Afternoon tea and biscuits or snacks are served on our arrival and at around 6.30 to 7.00 pm we will meet in the dining room for the evening meal.

HEALTH & FITNESS REQUIREMENTS

The fitter you are before embarking on a trekking holiday the more enjoyment you are going to get out of it. You should be in good condition for the activity you are going to do - lots of walking. Once you decide you are going on a trek, it is wise to begin a fitness programme. The best way for you to prepare is to take a lot of walks, particularly up and down hills. Jogging, aerobics, cycling and fast swimming will also help but should be in addition to walking outdoors.

We carry a basic first aid kit but recommend that each person also carry a personal first aid kit including any prescription medication they require; a suggested contents list will be provided on booking in the country information dossier. We also provide details of the recommended vaccinations needed however you will need to talk to your doctor, practice nurse or a travel clinic for the latest advice on health recommendations.

ACCOMMODATION

In Kathmandu we typically stay at the Shanker Hotel, a 100-year-old palace, situated in the heart of Kathmandu, facing the North side of the Royal Palace and just 10 minutes walk from busy Thamel, a quiet retreat with swimming pool and gardens. The grandfather of Her Majesty of Nepal once owned this heritage hotel, and the present owners have kept its historical character and the visible grandeur of the exterior and merged the old with modern comforts and authentic decorative objects, to create our comfortable base in Kathmandu. Alternatively we may stay at the Hotel de l' Annapurna, hotel Shangri La or Yak & Yeti hotels. These hotels are centrally located, situated close to the Royal Palace amidst landscaped gardens complete with swimming pool.

In Pokhara we use the Fishtail Lodge hotel or Shangri La hotel. These are first class hotels, superbly landscaped with magnificent tropical gardens with a swimming pool and fantastic views of the snow-capped Himalaya.

Our trek uses local lodges for accommodation. Most are family run, basic, clean and provide a deep insight into the lives of the local people. We have carefully selected the lodges in each village; they provide simple wooden beds, mattress, pillow and sheet. You will need to bring your own sleeping bag or request to borrow one of ours. Lodge accommodation is allocated on a twin-sharing basis, although very occasionally on trek, dormitory accommodation may be all that is available. Please note that sometimes the mentioned accommodation is fully booked in which case we will use similar standard accommodation.

SINGLE SUPPLEMENTS

If you are a single person booking this holiday you do not have to pay single supplements, if you are happy to share. Neither will you be asked to pay a single supplement if you end up with single occupancy because of odd numbers. If you are travelling by yourself you will be paired with another single client of the same gender. Single supplements are payable if you specifically request to have a room/tent to yourself. If you have requested single accommodation we will do our best to secure this although this may not always be possible.

FOOD

Breakfast in Kathmandu and Pokhara (if your itinerary visits Pokhara) and all meals on trek included. Most hotels and restaurants usually provide both vegetarian and non-vegetarian, continental, Nepalese and traditional cuisine. Please ask the staff if you have any specific request, especially regarding flavours and spices, as they will do their best to adjust menus accordingly and cater for your tastes. The lodges on the trail offer varied food and the menus are as diverse as the lodges themselves. There are continental menus as well as local cuisine such as dhal bhat (lentils and rice) and other nourishing meals. As much as possible, locally bought fresh vegetables are used although in some remote areas they are not available. Fresh fruit should always be peeled and avoid salads or raw vegetables. The menus in the lodges tend to look extensive but for trekking it is best to choose the high carbohydrate foods based on rice, chapattis, potatoes and vegetables, avoid fried food on ascents to assist with altitude.

WEATHER

Nepal has two seasons the dry season from October to May and the rainy, monsoon season from June to September. Daytime temperatures at lower altitudes (Kathmandu) will range between highs of 20°C (December to February) up to 30°C (May to October). The best time to visit most regions of Nepal is from October to early April when the weather is good for trekking and relatively dry. The season can be extended into May for higher altitude areas such as the Everest region. Early spring (mid Feb, March and April) will be ideal to see the rhododendrons in flower, with temperatures between 20°C to 30°C. Late autumn (October and November) offers crisp skies and often the clearest mountain views; temperatures are similar (20°C to 30°C).

Winter starts from December to February, when the mornings and evenings can be quite cold but warming up in the afternoon to become warm and sunny, the temperature ranges from 6°C to 20°C. The summer months of June to August can be too hot for general travel with monsoon rains. Pokhara remains favourable all the year round neither too warm nor too cold.

EQUIPMENT & CLOTHING

You will need to provide personal equipment and clothing. Buying specialist equipment and clothing can be costly. That is why on our Nepal trekking holidays, if requested, we have synthetic 4/5 season sleeping bags and liners that you can borrow free of charge! We can also lend you a synthetic duvet jacket, again free of charge! A considerable saving for those people who don't have their own equipment. You do not need any specialist equipment or clothing for most treks. Basically you need similar clothing to what you would take on a winter walk in the British hills. A detailed equipment list is provided on booking. We also provide a spacious Cordura kit bag, which will be given to you before your trek and is yours to keep. We provide a comprehensive equipment list in the country information dossier, which we send you on confirmation of booking.

PASSPORT & VISA REQUIREMENTS

You will require a passport valid for at least 6 months from the date of entry into Nepal; British Nationals also require a Nepalese entry visa, which should be obtained prior to departure. We will send you a visa application form and details of how to apply for this when you book. You can apply for your visa from the embassy in London. Alternatively you can obtain your visa on arrival at Kathmandu, although this may mean joining a queue. Other nationalities should check with the Nepalese embassy to see if a visa is required.

INSURANCE

It is a condition of booking with Classic Journeys that you have adequate travel insurance cover. It is very important that you obtain insurance cover against the usual risks associated with adventure travel, from the date of booking until the date you return home. Please ensure that your insurer is aware of your Classic Journeys itinerary and agrees to cover the activities being undertaken. Please ensure that your insurance provides adequate protection against the two major concerns: medical / repatriation expenses while abroad and cancellation / curtailment charges in the event that you, a travelling companion or a close relative fall ill either before or during the trip. For trekking holidays your travel insurance must contain evidence of satisfactory cover for repatriation and helicopter rescue.

Classic Journeys do not provide any advice on travel insurance. Classic Journeys is an Introducer Appointed Representative of Campbell Irvine Ltd. who are Authorised and Regulated by the Financial Services Authority. Campbell Irvine is a specialist travel insurance broker. The comprehensive policy they issue provides 24-hour medical emergency assistance and covers altitude and all adventurous activities undertaken on our holidays. For single-trip policies, the insurance provides cover for both UK and worldwide residents at very competitive rates. In addition an annual policy is available to United Kingdom residents.

To obtain insurance cover visit the insurance section of the Classic Journeys website and follow the links to the Campbell Irvine Ltd. website. Alternatively contact the Classic Journeys office and we will send you details and an application form.

We require confirmation of your insurance, the policy number and 24-hour emergency telephone number who ever you take insurance with.

You also need to pay us the required deposit as detailed on the booking form. If you are submitting an on-line booking form and decide you wish to pay the deposit by credit or debit card, you can, if you are concerned about security, telephone your card details to us.

Please note: We cannot confirm a booking until we receive your completed and signed booking form. Any delay in submitting your booking form may put at risk your place on your chosen trip, or flights.

If you would like further information, help with planning your holiday or details of extending your holiday, please don't hesitate to contact the Classic Journeys office.
